NEVER STOP PUSHING, Rulon Gardner with Bob Schaller (Avalon, December, 2005)

With writer Bob Schaller, Rulon Gardner tells the story of his impoverished upbringing as one of nine children in a close-knit Mormon family on a farm in Wyoming, where in performing unceasing chores he developed tremendous strength at an early age. Gardner writes about his struggles in school made arduous by learning disabilities that have challenged him his whole life. Also, after winning his gold medal, we read how this great-grandson of the Mormon Temple builder survived a snowmobile accident that marooned him outdoors for eighteen hours in high country. Rulon Gardner recovered from this and went on to defend his gold medal at Athens in 2004-yet another comeback from this athlete who was supposed to simply fade away.

THE FIRST BLACK QUARTERBACK, Marlin Briscoe with Bob Schaller

Review by David Kopel, the Rocky Mountain News, Oct. 22, 2005

"Marlin Briscoe was also the first black man ever to start at quarterback in the NFL, overcoming a prejudice that black athletes were not intelligent enough for the position. Briscoe went on to play wide receiver with the Miami Dolphins, help them win two Super Bowls, and earn himself a Pro Bowl appearance. In retirement, he nearly destroyed himself with drugs and wild partying, and almost got killed in a gang kidnapping. He finally cleaned up his life, and his autobiography, with Colorado author Bob Schaller, is a well-written, interesting story of the multiple rises and falls, and final victory, of a poor boy from Omaha."

"Sensational. Compelling." Edwin Pope, Miami Herald

"Fascinating. Volatile." Jerry Sullivan, Buffalo News

"His message is one of hope and determination." Jon Saraceno, USA Today
